THE PROGRAM

Winning is an attitude that permeates the entire University of Oklahoma athletics program. Championships and postseason play are synonymous with practically every Sooner sport.

Over the last 14 years, no OU program has accomplished more than softball. The architect - head coach Patty Gasso - needed just five years before she took her team to the pinnacle of the sport. And OU has not dropped from elite territory since. Gasso and company have created a tradition that rivals nearly any program in college softball and it has only taken 14 years. During that span, OU has averaged nearly 50 wins a season and won - on average - 70 percent of its contests. It is no wonder the Sooners have risen to national prominence so quickly.

THE ARCHITECT

Marita Hynes took a major risk when she chose Gasso to lead the softball program in 1995. Gasso was a successful junior college coach at Long Beach City College without any ties to the Midwest, let alone Oklahoma.

Gasso jumped at the opportunity and immediately began attracting top athletes from each coast and everywhere in between. Players like Kansas native Lisa Carey and California native Heather Scaglione were given the chance to shine in the Sooner spotlight and are perfect examples of players from different backgrounds who have become some of the biggest names in the sport.

THE DEFINING MOMENT

The program's defining moment came in its first trip to the Women's College World Series in 2000. The Sooners came away victorious. Since then, they have made appearances in five of the last nine WCWS and have become one of the most recognizable teams in the sport.

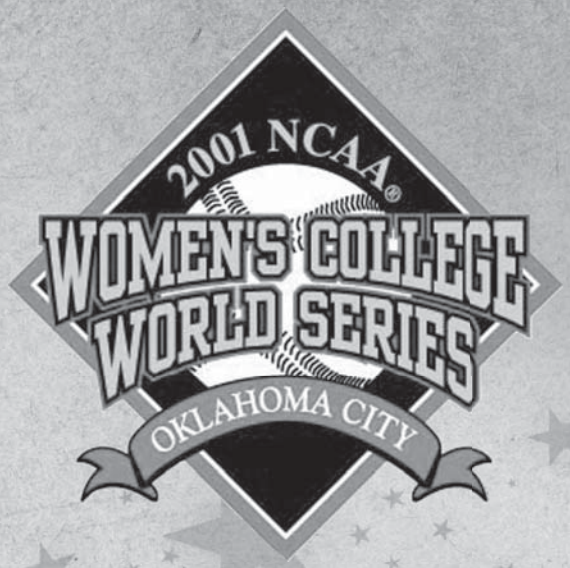
SOONERS KNOCK OFF UCLA FOR NATIONAL TITLE

The Sooners swept through their home regional as they defeated Harvard, Cal State-Northridge and beat Oregon State twice to make their first ever appearance in the World Series. The Sooner magic continued in Oklahoma City as Oklahoma opened the series with a 2-1 win over California and knocked off Southern Mississippi and perennial powerhouse Arizona to advance to the title game against UCLA. Using a 3-1 win over the Bruins, OU claimed its first national title in program history.



2001

REGIONAL CHAMPIONS

OKLAHOMA MAKES IT TWO STRAIGHT

A year after winning the national title and becoming only the second non-west coast team to win a softball national championship, the Sooners were back in the title hunt again. Once again, OU swept through its home regional after beating Lehigh, North Carolina and No. 12 Washington (twice) to advance to its second consecutive College World Series. The Sooners carried the nation's longest winning streak into the World Sereis, but went 1-2 and were eliminated by LSU in a heartbreaking 2-1 game.

REGIONAL CHAMPIONS

SOONERS KNOCK OFF TOP-SEEDED TEXAS AND OSTERMAN

The Sooners faced a tough task as they hosted the top-seeded Texas Longhorns in the Norman Regional. Oklahoma opened the regional with victories over Utah and Texas A&M before facing Texas and Olympic pitcher Cat Osterman. The Sooners avenged a loss to the Longhorns in the Big 12 Tournament as they scored four runs and advanced to the regional finals with a 4-1 win. Texas A&M knocked off Texas again and OU topped the Aggies 4-1 in the final to advance to its third straight WCWS.

2003

REGIONAL CHAMPIONS

OU TAKES GAINESVILLE REGIONAL, MAKES IT FOUR STRAIGHT

Different from their first three WCWS appearances, the Sooners had to do it on the road as they were sent to Gainesville, Fla., for the NCAA Regional. It didn't phase the Sooners as OU swept through the regional with the closest margin of victory being four runs. Oklahoma knocked off Bethune Cookman, South Florida, Texas-Arlington and Oregon State on its way to its fourth consecutive Women's College World Series appearance.

2004

REGIONAL CHAMPIONS

NO. 1 ARIZONA FALLS, SOONERS ADVANCE TO ANOTHER WCWS

OU faced another daunting task when it learned of its NCAA Regional schedule as it was headed to No. 1 Arizona as the No. 2 seed in the toughest regional in the tournament. Oklahoma faced the No. 1 Wildcats in the winner's bracket and upset Arizona, 3-2. The top-ranked Wildcats were knocked out by Louisiana-Lafayette in the loser's bracket final. The Cajuns, who had to beat the Sooners twice, topped OU in the first game but Oklahoma responded with a 15-0 run rule to advance to its fifth WCWS.

FIVE WCWS APPEARANCES IN THE LAST NINE YEARS

The numbers tell the story of the Oklahoma softball program's dramatic rise into elite company. The Sooners have made trips to the Women's College World Series in five of the last nine years. No other team east of Pac 10 country had ever been to five consecutive WCWS until the Sooners did it.

OU qualified for the national championship tournament by winning five straight NCAA Regional Championships. During that run to five consecutive WCWS, no team has been more efficient in its efforts. Patty Gasso's troops have gone 30-7 in regionals over the last nine seasons.

Since head coach Patty Gasso stepped onto campus in 1995, the Sooners have won three Big 12 Postseason Championships, eight NCAA Regional Championships and qualified for five WCWS. That is a run that is unparalleled by any program east of Arizona and one that can only be matched by a few out west.

2000 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The University of Oklahoma earned its first-ever softball national championship by defeating UCLA, 3-1, in front 8,049 at Don E. Porter Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City on May 29, 2000. The title was the first by a women's athletic program at Oklahoma. The Sooners finished the season with the best record in the country at 66-8.

Oklahoma, the third seed in the WCWS, got on the scoreboard in the third inning with a two-run home run from All-American first baseman Lisa Carey. Freshman shortstop Kelli Braitsch then nailed an RBI single to left field later in the inning to give OU the 3-0 lead.

Jennifer Stewart earned the World Series Most Outstanding Player award, earning victories in all four of OU's WCWS wins. Carey and Braitsch joined Stewart on the all-tournament team. OU became just the second non-west coast team to win a softball national championship.

THE SHOT HEARD 'ROUND OKLAHOMA

OU All-American Lisa Carey's two-run home run in the 2000 National Championship game instantly became the program's greatest individual moment. The blast gave the Sooners the decisive 3-1 lead and eventually sealed the program's first national championship. It was the second homer in as many days for the junior as her solo shot versus Arizona in the semifinals lifted the Sooners to the title game. The shot was Carey's 20th of the year and tied the OU single-season record which was set in 1999 by Lynette Velazquez.

BIG 12 YEAR-BY-YEAR

OU head coach Patty Gasso came on board in 1995 and one year later the Big 12 was born. Since season one, the Sooners have proved to be the class of the conference. They won the first regular season title, they were the first to 50 wins and the first to 100 wins. It's no wonder they lead the conference in all-time winning percentage. Below is a look at OU's year-by-year record in Big 12 play.

BIG 12 ALL-AMERICANS

BIG 12 DOMINANCE

No Big 12 softball member has seen that spotlight shine more brightly in its direction than the Oklahoma program. The Sooners have been on the national stage for the Women's College World Series in five of the last nine years. No Big 12 team has made more appearances at the WCWS since the inception of the conference in 1996. In fact, Nebraska and Texas are the only other teams to make more than one trip to the WCWS during that time frame.

OU has more NFCA All-Americans than the rest of the conference. The nation's coaches have voted 30 Sooners onto the NFCA's elite teams since the inception of the Big 12. Only three other teams - Nebraska, Texas and Texas A&M - can claim to have double-digit All-Americans during the era.

The Sooners lead the pack in All-Big 12 first team selections (9) and all-time winning percentage. The list just keeps going.

OU set the standard by winning the first Big 12 Championship in 1996. The Sooners upped the ante' in 2000 when they won the conference's only national title. Now, the Sooners continue to pace the league and raise the bar with four return trips and a bevy of honors along the way.

BEDLAM BELL

The Sooners' work in the Bedlam series is even more impressive. Since the official start of The Bedlam Series (2001), the trophy hasn't left Norman. OU has won it outright seven of the eight years and retained it after a split in 2003. Since the start of Big 12 play, OU has done no worse than a split with Oklahoma State in the regular season series, while claiming the series in 11 of 13 years.

BIG 12 ALL-AMERICANS

The Sooners have certainly made their mark on the Big 12 scene, but they haven't stopped there. OU has raked in more national and regional honors than any other Big 12 program. No area better emphasizes that distinction than All-Americans.

BIG 12 DOMINANCE

With team accomplishments comes individual recognition. That adage has held true with the Oklahoma softball program, which has raked in just about every honor out there.

Start with the coaching staff. OU head coach Patty Gasso, the architect of the Sooners' move to the top of the softball world, has been named the Big 12 Coach of the Year three times - 1996, 1999, 2000. Gasso and her staff were named Speedline/NFCA Division I National Coaching Staff of the Year in 2000 after claiming the National Championship. The OU coaching staff has also garnered the NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year award on five occasions - 1996, 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2004.

OU players have accumulated more honors than any other conference member. The list starts with All-Americans, of which OU has 31. At the regional level, 73 players have landed on the Midwest team. Among the Big 12 ranks, 52 Sooners have notched first team conference awards. Add in a National Player of the Year finalist, five Big 12 Players of the Year, two Freshman of the Year honorees, two Defensive Players of the Year, one Newcomer of the Year, one Pitcher of the Year, 41 Players of the Week and 24 Pitchers of the Week and the list becomes overwhelming.

The softball program has always produced well-rounded athletes and the academic honors don't take a back seat. In 2000, Lana Moran became the first Sooner in any sport to garner the Academic All-American of the Year. Seven student-athletes have been named Academic All-Americans. Ten have earned Academic All-District recognition. A total of 36 were named Academic All-Big Eight and 57 have already earned Academic All-Big 12 acclaim.

DEFINITION OF A STUDENT-ATHLETE

Oklahoma pitcher Lana Moran took the term student-athlete to new heights with her 2000 Academic All-American of the Year recognition. The lone senior on the 2000 National Championship team, Moran captained the squad as she tallied a 26-2 mark with five shutouts in the circle. Moran's biggest achievement came in the classroom where the San Bernardino, Calif., native compiled a 3.88 GPA in sociology. Moran was a two-time GTE first team Academic All-American, a four-time Academic All-Big 12 selection and the first Sooner in any sport to be named the Academic All-American of the Year.

FIRST NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR FINALIST

Samantha Ricketts made Oklahoma history in 2007 as she became the first OU player ever to finish as one of the final three contestants for USA Softball's National Player of the Year. Ricketts, who led the nation in RBI during the regular season, joined Arizona State's Kaitlin Cochran and Tennessee's Monica Abbott (the winner) as one of three finalists.

SOONERS INVITED TO USA TEAM TRYOUTS

FOURTH SOFTBALL PROGRAM IN HISTORY TO PLACE AT LEAST THREE MEMBERS ON THE SAME USA TEAM

USA SOFTBALL

The phone in Oklahoma head coach Patty Gasso's office rang three different times. Each time, the USA Elite Team selection committee was on the other end. Each time they wanted Gasso to gauge the interest one of her players would have in playing for the 2004 Elite Team.

After the third call, Gasso sat in her office and pondered what had happened over the last month. During that span, three Sooners had been invited (and accepted) to play in the First World University Softball Championships as members of the USA Elite Team, which ranks only behind the Olympic Team. Three Sooners were on the 16-player team, which was a first for any team at OU and only the fourth time any softball program had placed that many players on the squad at the same time.

It was just another sign that OU was among collegiate softball's creme de la creme but it still took some time to hit Gasso.

USA Softball's interest in the Oklahoma program continued during the summer of 2006 as alum Norrelle Dickson was one of 16 collegiate players to play on the USA World Team in Taiwan.

Sooner players have been called on before. Former Sooners Kami Keiter and Heather Scaglione were rookies on the 2004 squad. Dickson, on the other hand, played in five tournaments with the Elite squad. Former Sooner Kristin Vesely played for the USA Junior National Team before her freshman year and alum Leah Gulla (2000-03) was part of the Olympic Trials. Additionally, Samantha Ricketts, as well as alums Christina Enea, Kelli Braitsch and Lisa Carey have received a number of tryouts.

Sooner softball has carved its niche into USA Softball and Gasso should be ready for future calls.

SOONERS IN THE PROS

The Sooners have watched numerous alums graduate to the professional ranks. As far back as Jill Most, Jennifer Jaime and Lynnette Velasquez, OU has made an impact on the highest stage of softball.

During the inaugural National Pro Fastpitch college draft, three former Sooners were selected. Erin Evans made the most of her opportunity as a member of the Houston Thunder. Leah Gulla and Christy Ring were also drafted by Colorado in the first NPF draft.

Most recently, Norrelle Dickson was picked as the sixth overall pick by the Akron Racers and was named an all-NPF selection in her first season with the team. Kristin Vesely was the fourth overall pick in the 2006 NPF draft and led the New England Riptide to the NPF title in her first season. In 2005, Oklahoma led all programs with three draftees in the 2005 NPF Senior Draft as Heather Scaglione was the first catcher selected and Kami Keiter (11th) and Christina Enea (13th) were also drafted.

GASSO'S COACHING TREE

Numerous student-athletes have come to Oklahoma hoping to continue their softball career, not just on the field as an NCAA athlete, but as a coach when they finish their careers in Norman. OU head coach Patty Gasso has always encouraged her players to be active in the sport when their time as a Sooner has come to a close.

After 14 years with OU, Gasso has proteges sprinkled all over the country. Several former players are coaching at the collegiate level, as well as former assistant coaches. Other alums are coaching on the high school or travel ball scene.

The Sooner pipeline continues to grow with the graduation of each class. With each class, the OU program is doing its part to continue the development and promotion of softball inside and outside of Oklahoma's borders.

OKLAHOMA CITY — Oklahoma hadn't won any kind of conference title, regular season or tournament, since 2001, when the Sooners grabbed both.

Well, the wait is over.

Second-ranked OU ended Texas Tech's Cinderella run through the Big 12 tournament Saturday with a 6-3 victory at ASA Hall of Fame Stadium.

The Sooners, none of whom were around the last time a conference trophy made its way back to the OU softball complex, raided the field, celebrating and posing for pictures after the victory.

Mathis, Sooners silence Cowgirls

By Andrea Cohen
Staff Writer

STILLWATER — Oklahoma pitcher D.J. Mathis had 10 days, 21 hours and 30 minutes to plan her pitch to strike out Oklahoma State's Heather Kim.

She decided on a changeup, and after a two-and-a-half-week rain delay she executed the pitch perfectly and struck out Kim to get the second out of the second inning in Tuesday's Bedlam makeup game. Mathis also struck out seven more batters as OU beat OSU 3-1.

"Everybody knew (Mathis) was throwing a changeup to that girl and she executed it great," OU's Sara Ricketts said. "She told everyone before, 'That is what's going on, guys.' And she did it. Everybody on the field just started laughing because we knew exactly what she wanted to do."

OKLAHOMA 3, OSU 1

Gasso said that after a strong start she felt her team "got a little let-stagnant."

"We need to do a little bit better job of clutch hits," she said. "We're leaving too many runners in scoring position. We just need to clutch up a little bit better."

OSU's Megan Castle hit an infield single in the fourth to make the score 3-1, and the Cowgirls hit well late in the game but couldn't find a hole.

"You look at our last at-bats and they were just whiffs," OSU coach Rich Wedgeman said. "They just happened to go right to them."

Wedgeman said he chose to use Tuesday night's performance as a 14-inning audition for OSU's chance at a rematch tonight when it travels to Norman for a 7 p.m. game.

"The key for tomorrow is we gotta get out of the first inning without giving up runs," Wedgeman said. "I think in two of the three losses we've given up multiple runs in the first inning. Maybe we can score early tomorrow and get ahead."

NORMAN — In the top of the first inning, Oklahoma committed two errors on the first two batters, allowing Oklahoma State to go ahead 1-0.

But in the bottom half of the first, Sooner leadoff hitter Jennifer Flores swung the momentum back to OU for good with one swing of her bat.

Flores' solo home run over the center-field wall keyed the No. 8-ranked Sooners' 6-1 victory Wednesday night at Martia Hynes Field in front of a season-high 1,359 fans.

"I just went up there swinging the bat, trying to get the ball over the plate," said Flores, who had a three-hit, defensive effort. "I was trying to end the game. Anytime the crowd is into the game with two outs, it's big. The way the fans packed the park tonight really pumped us up."

Flores led the Sooners offensively, going 2-for-3 with two runs scored and the homer.

That proved to be more than enough for OU ace and reigning Big 12 co-player of the year Lauren Eckenrode, who allowed only one hit in the sixth, leading the

NATIONAL exposure

MEDIA ATTENTION

The Women's College World Series has been the biggest event in Oklahoma over the last few years. The Oklahoma softball team capitalized on that exposure by winning in its first trip to the WCWS in 2000.

Patty Gasso's squad enjoys more coverage than arguably any program in the country. The unique media landscape in Oklahoma has something to do with that. Five straight WCWS has been a bigger influence.

Perhaps nothing better illustrates the softball program's rise than a June 2004, story in the largest paper in the state, The Oklahoman. Columnist Jenni Carlson boldly proclaimed head coach Patty Gasso as the best coach at the University. Carlson ranked Gasso's achievements above those of football coach Bob Stoops, basketball coaches Sherri Coale and gymnastics coach Mark Williams. One opinion sparked argument throughout the state. Gasso couldn't buy publicity that good. But she and her teams have certainly earned it.

TAKING CENTER STAGE

Sooner softball receives a big slice of the coverage the University of Oklahoma receives. Behind football and the basketball programs, softball and baseball are next on the food chain. The fact that softball and baseball are on the same level at OU says a lot about the success of Patty Gasso's program.

The media attention peaked to a near all-time high in 2004 (just short of the 2000 national championship season) when the Sooners advanced out of the toughest regional in the country, in the process knocking off No. 1 Arizona and No. 9 Louisiana-Lafayette. The Sooners were not only the biggest story in Oklahoma, but they stole the spotlight on the national level of collegiate softball.

THE COMPLEX

Marita Hynes Field at the OU Softball Complex has been one of the sparkling gems of the sport since it opened its doors in 1998. OU was one of the first schools outside of the Pac 10 to make the commitment to its softball program by building an exclusive facility for the sport. The trend caught on and Oklahoma was again leading the pack in women's athletics as new stadiums have sprung up across the national landscape.

The OU Softball Complex uses a synthetic waterproof dirt on the infield and warning track, which allows Patty Gasso's team to train on the field minutes after a rain storm has moved through. The most recent addition to the facility was a 6,020 square foot indoor facility opened in January 2009. The indoor facility features a 65' x 65' infield with Hilltopper infield dirt and storage for the team and grounds crew. The infield also accommodates four hitting lanes.

The complex provides permanent chair back and bleacher seating with a capacity of 1,000; a concessions building and rest rooms; press box; VIP lounge and a ticket office. The complex is equipped with a state-of-the-art underground drainage system, sprinkler system and batting cages. A paved parking lot was in place in time for the 1999 season and OU added the Robert E. Young & Family Softball Locker Room in 2002. The field was named for former softball coach and senior woman administrator, Marita Hynes, in 2004.

SOFTBALL PIONEER

It's a tough task to find a single individual who has had more effect on the collegiate sport of softball and its rise in popularity than Marita Hynes. The longtime fomer senior woman administrator for Oklahoma actually served as the program's second softball coach. When she retired from coaching to begin a career as an administrator, she remained active in the softball world. She spearheaded the fund-raising campaign to build the OU Softball Complex and oversaw its construction. During those years, she helped lure the Women's College World Series to Oklahoma City. For all her contributions to OU and beyond, the athletics department officially christened the playing surface as Marita Hynes Field on April 24, 2004.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH NANCY DERRICK

Nancy Derrick begins her first season as the strength and conditioning coach for the University of Oklahoma softball team. Derrick comes to OU from the University of Louisiana-Monroe where she was an assistant strength coach from 2006-08. While completing her degree requirements at her alma mater, Derrick was a graudate assistant strength coach at Auburn from 2004-06.

Derrick holds certifications from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Derrick received her bachelor of science in health promotion in 2004. In 2006, she earned her master's degree in exercise physiology from AU. The Johnston, S.C., native was a member of the Auburn women's basketball team for four years.

2008 TRIATHLON

THE PROGRAM

Oklahoma's weight training program is a pioneer in the development of strength and conditioning, and is a vital part of the Sooners' traditional success. OU strength and conditioning coaches utilize their expertise along with a wide array of equipment and tests to produce national championship-caliber athletes.

Evaluation, goal-oriented programs, supervision and state-of-the-art facilities help Oklahoma athletes become bigger, faster, stronger and more flexible. The Robin Siegfried & Family Strength and Conditioning Complex, located in the Barry Switzer Center, has 13,000 square feet to facilitate the intensive training of OU athletes.

The objective of the strength and conditioning program is to ensure each student-athlete in every sport is provided with a sound in-season and off-season program. This program of activity includes strength, conditioning, flexibility and nutrition. A strength and conditioning coordinator for each sport is provided to assist athletes in reaching the highest possible training levels.

Located at the south end of Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the Barry Switzer Center houses administrative offices, the football locker room, the equipment room, the 8,000-square-foot Henry Freede Sports Medicine Facility and the 7,000-square-foot Touchdown Club Legends Lobby in addition to the Siegfried Strength and Conditioning Complex.

THE TRIATHLON

Before the start of the fall season, the OU softball team tackles one of its toughest strength and conditioning tests of the year - the annual triathlon. The event features a three mile run, a six-mile bike ride and a swim. The mental test is designed to push the student-athletes to finish and overcome challenges. An overall winner is named, as well as second and third-place finishers. Each event also has a winner. The event is considered the first step on the ladder of the team's ultimate goal - a national championship.

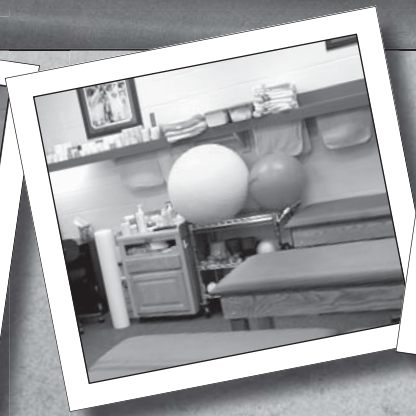
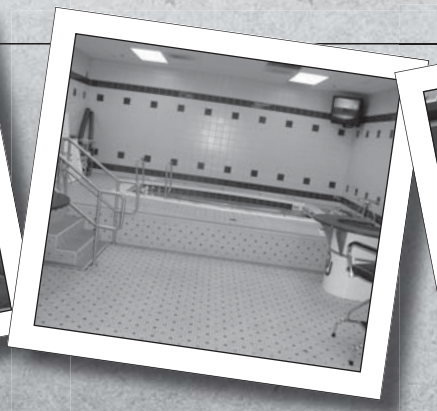
JACE COBB AND TRACI DICKENSON



ATHLETIC TRAINER JACE COBB

Jace Cobb, ATC/LAT, is in his first season as the graduate athletic trainer for the University of Oklahoma softball team. Prior to coming to Norman, Cobb was a student trainer at his alma mater, LSU. He worked with the Tiger football, men's basketball and softball teams for three seasons. During summer 2006, Cobb was an intern athletic trainer with the Chicago Bears organization.

The Pass Christian, Miss., native holds a bachelor's degree in kinesiology with a concentration in athletic training. Cobb is currently working towards his master's degree in human relations from OU.



COMPREHENSIVE REHABILITATION

The Oklahoma Athletics Department feels a strong responsibility to help its athletes reach and maintain their optimum health and achieve conditioning goals. For this reason, OU has developed excellent training and conditioning programs to lessen the possibility of injuries. However, should injuries occur, the department is committed to a comprehensive rehabilitation program. Complete athletically-related medical services are provided to Oklahoma student-athletes by team physicians and OU's certified athletic trainers. The University of Oklahoma obtains the services of the best medical consultants available.

The base of operation for the Sooners' medical care is the state-of-the-art Henry J. Freede, M.D. Sports Medicine Center in the Barry Switzer Center. The addition to the Barry Switzer Center has allowed the university to upgrade to a new edition of rehabilitation equipment that can best benefit the student-athletes. From simple therabands to taping tables, the new facility offers everything a school can have or hope to have. The Sooner training room is equipped to perform isokinetic joint evaluation for preventive medicine and for post-injury rehabilitation. The therapy room is supplied with the latest modalities on the market.

A total team effort is the key to OU's efficiency in preventing, treating and rehabilitating injuries sustained by student-athletes. These measures keep Sooner athletes at their highest level of performance as they compete for championships.

"Sports medicine is a team effort," said OU head trainer Scott Anderson. "The stated goal of athletic training at Oklahoma is, first of all, care for the student-athletes, thereby granting our sports a competitive advantage and ultimately greater esteem for the entire program. To that end, we are blessed with a full complement of self-sacrificing medical professionals working on a regular basis with our athletic training staff."

PREPARING LEADERS FOR TOMORROW

The recent Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium expansion and improvement included remodeled office space in the facility's north end. The largest piece of that project was the Prentice Gautt Academic Center. Some 35,000 square feet are dedicated to the academic pursuits of Sooner student-athletes.

Indeed, there is considerable emphasis on classroom performance at OU. The center staff has achievement as its focus, a fact that is reflected in a graduation rate that exceeds that of the general student body. In addition to its academic work, the staff assists in several life skills areas designed to enrich students in a broad range of tasks.

THE LEGACY OF PRENTICE GAUTT

The OU Academics Center that today's student-athletes use everyday now bears the name of the man who left an indelible legacy for Sooner Athletics and helped change a society in the process.

"It is appropriate that this center be named after Prentice Gautt," University of Oklahoma President David L. Boren said. "His personal values and character, along with his leadership as associate commissioner of the Big 12 Conference, continue to bring pride to his alma mater.

"His personal example of quiet courage, grace under pressure, and dedication to the university helped open the doors of opportunity for countless number of African-American and minority student-athletes who have followed him into collegiate athletics."

BASEBALL

In 2008, head coach Sunny Golloway led the OU baseball team into the championship round of an NCAA Regional for the third time in his four years at the helm. The Sooners advanced to their 31st NCAA Tournament after a strong finish to the season which included an appearance in the Big 12 Championship where OU was one game away from playing for the conference title. In the Tempe Regional, OU defeated No. 22 Vanderbilt twice and was eliminated by the host school and fourth-ranked team in the country, Arizona State. OU was one of four Big 12 schools to advance to the final game of NCAA Regional play. Three Sooners, Aljay Davis, Aaron Baker and Mike Gosse, were named to the All-Tournament team, giving OU 13 regional honorees since Golloway took over at the end of the 2005 season. Oklahoma finished 36-26-1 overall in 2008 and was the top hitting program in Big 12 action.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

What a difference a year and a McDonald's All-American make. After posting a 16-15 record in 2006-07 and missing the postseason for the first time since 1981, men's basketball in 2007-08 returned to a familiar destination – the NCAA Tournament. Behind a first team All-Big 12 performance from freshman forward Blake Griffin, head coach Jeff Capel's Sooners posted a 23-12 overall record, finished in fourth place in the conference race and participated in the program's 21st NCAA Tournament in the past 26 years (only six schools have made more appearances during the span). A No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Regional, OU disposed of No. 11 seed Saint Joseph's 72-64 in Birmingham, Ala., behind a career-high 25 points from David Godbold to become one of the last 32 teams standing. A second-round loss to No. 3 seed Louisville wasn't enough to strip the luster from a season full of accomplishments.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The University of Oklahoma women's basketball team finished the 2007-08 season with a 22-9 overall record, a No. 19 ranking and a 10th straight postseason appearance. OU reached the NCAA Tournament for the ninth straight year, defeating Illinois State to advance past the first round for the third straight year before falling in an overtime thriller to Notre Dame in the second round. Courtney Paris earned consensus All-America honors for a third straight season, becoming the first Sooner to do so, and was named the Big 12's Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year. Danielle Robinson, who was the only freshman on a ranked team to lead her team in assists and steals, was named the conference's freshman of the year and was the only first year player on its all-defensive team. Ashley Paris and Robinson were honorable mentions to the All-Big 12 Team.

CROSS COUNTRY

The University of Oklahoma women's cross country team finished 10th and the men 12th at the 2008 Big 12 Cross Country Championships. Sophomore Kelly Waters led the way for OU, finishing fifth to claim All Big-12 honors. Waters finished the 6,000-meter event with a time of 21 minutes and 14 seconds, 1:29. Waters went on to finish 10th at the NCAA Midwest Regional and ended her season with a 93rd-place finish in the NCAA Cross Country Championships, hosted by Indiana State University, in Terre Haute, Ind.

FOOTBALL

In 2008, Oklahoma won its sixth Big 12 Football Championship and became the first program to win the crown in three straight seasons. The Sooners faced Florida in the 2008 FedEx BCS National Championship game, their fourth apperance in the title game. While OU came up short, falling 24-14. Still, the Sooners had a successful season finishing with a final record of 12-2. Sophomore quarterback Sam Bradford became the fifth Heisman Trophy winner in school history. He was also named the Associated Press college football player of the year and won the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top quarterback. Bradford became the first Sooner to win the Sammy Baugh Trophy. In addition to Bradford, Oklahoma's other All-Americans included sophomore defensive tackle Gerald McCoy, junior tight end Jermaine Gresham and senior offensive guard Duke Robinson. OU offensive coordinator Kevin Wilson was honored with the Frank Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top NCAA assistant football coach.

MEN'S GOLF

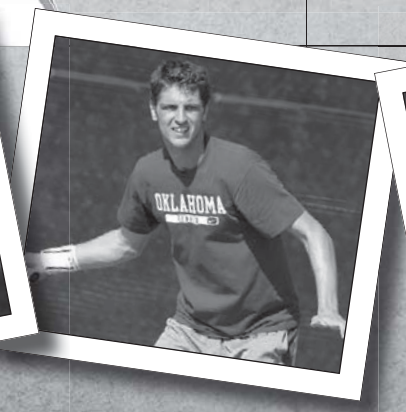
Nine of the 10 roster spots on the 2007-08 men's golf squad were filled by underclassmen, yet eighth-year head coach Jim Ragan led the Sooners to nine top-10 finishes and a spot in the NCAA West Regional to close the season. Lone upperclassman Phillip Bryan paced the team, carrying a 73.71 stroke average for the season. The Mustang, Okla., senior also made a name for himself off the course, earning Academic All-Big 12 honors for the third consecutive season and a spot on the PING All-Region team.

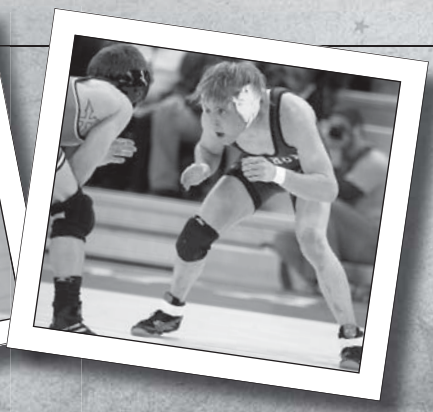
WOMEN'S GOLF

Coming into the season, the OU women's golf team hadn't won a tournament since 2004. When all was said and done, the 2007-08 Sooners had captured three tournament championships and qualified for the NCAA West Regional, their first appearance in the NCAA Regional Championships since 2004. Senior Heather Wright had five top-25 finishes this season, including two top 10s. Freshman Ellen Mueller had one of the best freshman seasons in women's golf history. She started all 11 tournaments for the Sooners, recording seven top-25s, four top 20s, two top 10s and a top five.

MEN'S GYMNASTICS

Ranked second heading into the 2008 NCAA Championships and facing No. 1 Stanford on its home floor in Palo Alto, Calif., the Sooners surged ahead of the Cardinal on the final routine of the night to claim their eighth national championship and fifth in the last seven years. Six OU gymnasts accounted for 11 All-America honors at the NCAA meet. Following the national championships, OU head coach Mark Williams was named the National Coach of the Year, while assistants Daniel Furney and Rustam Sharipov were honored as National Co-Assistant Coaches of the Year.





WOMEN'S GYMNASTICS

The 2008 season proved to be a storybook one for OU women's gymnastics as the team cemented itself as one of the program's all-time best. Etching its name in the record books on multiple occasions, the Sooners clinched their first Big 12 title since 2004 in dramatic come-from-behind fashion and placed eighth at the NCAA Championships, tying the '07 squad for the best finish in program history at the season-ending event. OU made its fifth straight NCAA Championships appearance, adding to its program-record streak. Senior Kiara Redmond capped off her illustrious career with four additional All-America honors to move her career total to nine - the highest number of any gymnast in program history. The '08 campaign started with 21 straight victories, including all 18 regular-season meetings. The Sooners became the only team in the country to post an undefeated regular season.

WOMEN'S ROWING

Oklahoma's newest sport – women's rowing – began competition in fall 2008. Head Coach Leeanne Crain led the Sooner squad to a successful season, competing in three regattas , including the Head of the Oklahoma, Head of the Colorado and the Head of the Hooch. The varsity squad's W04+ fared well, placing ninth at the Head of the Oklahoma in a time of 17 minutes and seven seconds; third at the Head of the Colorado; and 21st at the nationally renowned Head of the Hooch. The novice squads also shared in the success, competing for the first time at the Head of the Colorado where they entered two squads in the W8+, placing second and third in their events. The novice eights also competed at the Head of the Hooch, placing fifth and ninth, respectively.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

The Sooners finished the 2008 season strong with a 2-3-1 mark down the stretch. OU (3-15-1 overall, 2-7-1 Big 12) finished one win shy of qualifying for the Big 12 Championship. Sophomore forward Whitney Palmer was named to the All-Big 12 second team after leading the Sooners in goals scored for the second consecutive season. Palmer's eight goals was tied for sixth in the Big 12 at the end of the regular season and is the tied for the third most in OU single-season history.

MEN'S TENNIS

With a squad led by only two seniors and that included one junior, one sophomore and three freshmen, the 2008 men's tennis team faced a tough test during the 2008 season. Still, the experience gained in 2008 primes the Sooners for a future which promises to be exciting and is filled with a tremendous upside. Andrei Daescu was the lone Sooner selected to play in the NCAA Championships. The sophomore was defeated in the first round by Clancy Shields of Boise State, 5-7, 6-2, 7-5 to finish the season with a record of 28-12.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The women's tennis team went 11-12 and 4-8 in the Big 12 with a young squad. The Sooners had three true freshmen playing in their top six, including standout Ana-Maria Constantinescu, who was named the ITA Central Regional Rookie of the Year after the season ended. Constantinescu led the Sooners at the No. 1 position, earning a 15-5 overall record and a 7-4 Big 12 mark. Combined with her play in the fall, the Romania native went 24-9 during her freshman year. In fall play, Constantinescu became the first freshman to qualify for the National Indoor Championships under head coach Mark Johnson. She earned the spot after claiming the runner-up title in the 2007 fall Regional tournament.

TRACK AND FIELD

The 2008 Oklahoma track and field season marked the third under head coach Martin Smith and the third year of continued growth, both on the track and off the track. An addition to the staff and additions to the program's historic résumé paints a bright future for the resurgent program. The Sooners reached the double-digit mark in All-America honors with six coming at the NCAA Outdoor Championships and four at the NCAA Indoor Championships. Two of the All-Americans, Shardae Boutte and Latoya Greaves, recorded a sweep of the Big 12 Conference titles, claiming indoor and outdoor titles in the triple jump and hurdles, respectively. Both the men's and women's teams reached their highest national rankings, the men at No. 3 during the indoor season and the women at No. 16 in the outdoor season. The Oklahoma men closed out the indoor season with a 15th-place finish at the NCAA Indoor Championships.

VOLLEYBALL

With a young squad, the 2008 Oklahoma volleyball team surpassed expectations. The team finished 12-16 overall, 8-12 in Big 12 play for a seventh-place finish. The Sooners started three freshmen and one transfer for the majority of the year - the only team in the league to have that young of a core. The Sooners faced one of the nation's toughest schedules - playing nationally-ranked Southern California, San Diego and Cal Poly in non-conference play. During the conference season, OU recorded its biggest win in school history, upending then-third-ranked Texas in Austin on Oct. 29, 2008. It was Oklahoma's first win over a top five opponent and the Sooners' second win in the series. Despite failing to make the NCAA Tournament, the 2008 team garnered much-need experience to carry the team far into the future. The freshmen duo of Caitlin Higgins and Brianne Barker were named to the Big 12 All-Freshman team. Higgins earned the AVCA/Sports Imports National Player of the Week honor on Nov. 4.

WRESTLING

The Sooner wrestling squad completed the 2007-08 regular season with a 14-5 dual record, its most wins since winning 14 in 2004. It also marked the 13th straight season that head coach Jack Spates had led the OU program to at least 10 wins. That feat was accomplished with six underclassmen becoming staples in the starting lineup. The youthful group looked to three seniors for leadership as Max Dean (165 pounds), Joshua Weitzel (184 pounds) and Joel Flaggert (197 pounds) filled the role by posting a combined 62-12 record during the regular season. Seven of Oklahoma's victories during the campaign came against teams that placed in the top 30 at the NCAA Championships (No. 5 OSU, No. 16 Pitt, No. 18 Navy, No. 25 North Carolina, No. 26 Cal Poly, and tied for No. 28 was Michigan State and Arizona State).

norman AND OKC

NORMAN - HOME OF THE SOONERS

Norman is an ever-changing city of nearly 100,000 residents. Located in the heart of the state, it has grown to become the third largest city in Oklahoma. Despite its continuous growth, it has maintained the spirit and serenity of a small, close-knit community.

Since the Oklahoma Land Rush of 1889, Norman has grown into a popular and smart city. The spirit of Norman and its citizens is unwavering and uncompromising. While other towns were clamoring to become the state capital, Norman residents wanted to have the first state university. When the first OU president got off the train and saw a prairie, he saw opportunity.

As home to the state's premier educational institution, Norman boasts an excellent quality of life and is a city that thrives on and celebrates the diversity of its community. Legendary University of Oklahoma football coach Barry Switzer called Norman "a university town with a championship spirit."

OKLAHOMA CITY

Oklahoma City, the state's capital, is located just 18 miles north of the Norman campus. It was the first city settled in the Land Run of 1889 because of its position at the center of the state.

Oklahoma City offers a variety of attractions and activities different from any other place in the country. Oklahoma City sprawls across 625 square miles of America's heartland. The city's metro population numbers more than one million -- a third of the entire state's population.

Oklahoma City has become a haven for exciting sports action. It is home to an NBA franchise - the Oklahoma City Thunder, two minor league teams and is the host of the NCAA College Softball World Series.

Located just southeast of downtown, Bricktown is Oklahoma City's entertainment and dining district. Restaurants with a total capacity of more than 4,000 seats, shopping, and a generous helping of turn-of-the-century charm has turned Bricktown into a hotspot for Oklahoma City nights.

BIG 12 conference

A CONFERENCE OF EXCELLENCE

The Big 12 Conference has established a consistent level of national success on the field and in the classroom as it enters its 13th season in 2008-09.

Since it began play in 1996-97, the Conference can boast 31 team crowns and over 385 individual NCAA Championships. The success continued during 2007-08 as Kansas captured the Big 12's first national title in men's basketball, while the league added 31 individual crowns.

Over the past four seasons a total of 12 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in all but one year for the Conference, including each of the past 11 seasons.

The Big 12 leads all conferences with five appearances in Bowl Championship Series title games. League squads have played for the football national championship five times in the last nine years with berths in 14 BCS games overall, including two in 2007.

The Big 12 led all conferences with four teams ranked in the Top 10 in the final national polls a season ago. In addition, an all-time high eight league players earned consensus All-America recognition in 2007, more than any other conference.

In basketball, nine men's and women's teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past seven seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences. The six men's Final Four participants since 2002 is more than any conference.

Numerous national honors have been won by basketball student-athletes during the league's history, with Michael Beasley (Kansas State), D.J. Augustin (Texas) and Courtney Paris (Oklahoma) the most recent to garner accolades as consensus All-America in 2007-08.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Big 12 student-athletes also do well in garnering national academic recognition. Sarah Pavan (Nebraska) was named Academic All-America of the Year in volleyball the past two seasons by ESPN The Magazine and College Sports Information Directors of America with a 4.0 grade-point average in Biochemistry. She also won the national academic honor presented for all sports in 2006-07 and was named recipient of the prestigious 2006-07 Honda-Broderick Award as Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year. She is the first athlete since the Big 12 was formed to earn the accolade.

In addition to his athletic accomplishments, Augustin was an Academic All-America First Team choice. In its history, the conference can boast of over 300 academic honorees, averaging more than 25 each season.

The Big 12 can boast of other stories that combine on and off the field success. Patience Knight (Texas Tech) was the recipient of the Honda Inspiration Award in 2008, given to an outstanding female college athlete who overcomes adversity to excel in her sport. She was diagnosed with a cancerous tumor in 2007, but rebounded to win All-America honors at the 2008 NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons.

At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 201 scholars have received over $1.2 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 12 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.
The institutions created a league that encompasses seven states, over 45 million people and television households in 18 of the top 100 markets within its geographic footprint.

The conference conducts championships for 20 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the prestigious Bowl Championship Series.

In the last several years the Big 12 has increased its bowl agreements and expanded television opportunities for all sports through contracts with ABC/ESPN, FSN and CBS College Sports. Most recently, the league renewed and expanded its multi-year arrangement with ABC/ESPN, Inc. The new contract begins in 2008-09.

In its first 12 years, the Conference has distributed more than $1 billion to its 12 member institutions.

The Big 12 staff administers to over 4,600 student-athletes in 21 sports. The conference is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

STANDING TALL

Oklahoma returns seven starters and has the poise to make another postseason run in 2009

For Oklahoma, the tradition speaks for itself. The Sooners have been to the postseason every year of the Patty Gasso era and are poised once again to make a run into late May. Oklahoma has been ranked 193 consecutive weeks in the polls since 1995. They begin the season right on target. The question that remains is can they finish there?

The Sooners return three All-Americans from 2008's 47-14 NCAA Super Regional team. A total of 10 letterwinners return and this season looks to be one of Oklahoma's most experienced squads. The biggest challenge this team faces is incorporating six newcomers and getting production from the young pitching staff.

For the first time since 2000, Oklahoma was a unanimous selection to win the Big 12 preseason title. The Sooners received nine of a possible 10 first-place votes. Despite being chosen ahead of defending Big 12 champion and national runner-up Texas A&M in the conference coaches' poll, the Sooners were chosen 10th in the preseason USA Today/NFCA Division I top 25 – behind the fifth-ranked Aggies. OU was eighth in the ESPN.com/USA Softball preseason rankings.

The Schedule

The Sooners begin the season at the Hawai'i Paradise Classic in Honolulu Feb. 5-7. OU squares off against Hawai'i, UAB and LSU before bracket play begins on the final day. The following weekend, the Sooners travel to Houston, Texas, for the Marriott Houston Classic. Host Houston and OU will be joined by N.C. State, Texas State and Indiana.

"Again, we have one of the toughest schedules in the country," said Sooner head coach Patty Gasso said. "We wouldn't have it any other way. We enjoy playing some of the best competition in the country. It makes us better and prepares us for our Big 12 schedule and postseason."

Oklahoma hosts its first home contest of the season on Feb. 18 when Stephen F. Austin comes to Norman for a doubleheader at the OU Softball Complex. The Sooners then travel to Cathedral City, Calif., Feb. 20-22 for the Cathedral City Classic. While out in the desert, the Sooners take on Cal Poly, defending national champion Arizona State, Nevada, 2008 Women's College World Series finalist Alabama and Massachusetts.

The 2009 OU/Sooner Legends Tournament is scheduled for Feb. 28-March 1 with Creighton and Saint Louis. All games will be played at the OU Softball Complex. The Sooners co-host the OU/Worth Tournament at ASA Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City March 6-8. Featured in the event are Tennessee and Northwestern. The opening game against Tennessee will be played at the OU Softball Complex on Friday night.

The Sooners open conference play on March 10 with a doubleheader against Texas Tech before venturing back to the Golden State for a final time for the Judi Garman Classic in Fullerton, Calif. OU faces Notre Dame, Florida State, DePaul, 2008 Women's College World Series finalist Louisiana-Lafayette, Cal State Fullerton and Bowling Green in the event.

OU host Bedlam rival Oklahoma on April 15 in the first of the two-game series. The Sooners close out the 2009 home slate April 18-19 against Texas A&M. OU finishes the season the road at Missouri (April 25-26) and at Oklahoma State (April 29).

The 2009 Big 12 Softball Tournament is May 8-10 in Oklahoma City. The NCAA Tournament begins at campus sites with the NCAA Regionals (May 15-16) followed by NCAA Super Regionals (May 22-24). The 2009 NCAA Women's College World Series is slated for May 28-June 3 at ASA Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City.

The Battery

KEY RETURNERS
D.J. Mathis	Sr.	LHP	1.18 ERA, 263 K, 31-7
Lindsey Vandever	Jr.	C	.315 BA, 40 RBI, .982 F%

Oklahoma returns a powerful battery combination in left-handed pitcher D.J. Mathis (East Alton, Ill./Roxana) and catcher Lindsey Vandever (Davenport, Okla./High). Mathis, a second team All-America selection a year ago, won 31 games as a junior and will be the Sooners' top hurler during the 2009 campaign. Vandever earned second team All-Region honors in 2008 and set an Oklahoma single season record for fielding percentage by a catcher (.982). In addition to Vandever's stellar defensive play, OU will again rely on her power in the lineup. Vandever hit .315 a year ago, bringing in 40 runs and recording 52 hits.

Mathis posted a 1.18 earned run average, one of the nation's lowest in 2008. She held opponent hitters to a .158 average and tallied 263 strikeouts.

A trio of incoming freshmen – all pitchers – will be key to Oklahoma's success in 2009. Allee Allen (Buena Vista, Calif./Kennedy) and Kirsten Allen (Union, Ky./Ryle), along with Oklahoma product Samantha Bachman (Midwest City/Carl Albert), will be called upon during the season. Gasso believes the performance of this group will directly relate to OU's success. Listed as a catcher, Oklahoma native Katie Norris (Stillwater/High) provides depth within the batting order and could see time in the outfield during the year.

SENIOR JEANNIE DOUGLAS

The Infield

KEY RETURNERS
Amber Flores	Jr.	SS	.381 BA, 15 HR, 45 BB
Samantha Ricketts	Sr.	1B	.352 BA, 51 RBI, 56 Hits

KEY LOSSES
Savannah Long	Sr.	SS	.359 BA, 13 HR, .652 SLG%

Already two of the most prolific hitters in Oklahoma history, Amber Flores (Calexico, Calif./Southwest) and Samantha Ricketts (San Jose, Calif./Archbishop Mitty) return for their junior and senior seasons, respectively. Each has already earned All-America honors with Ricketts getting the nod in 2007 and Flores in 2008. The two combined for 97 of Oklahoma's RBI and 123 hits in 2008. Flores led the team with a .381 batting average last season, while Ricketts was third with a .352 clip.

With the loss of All-American shortstop Savannah Long, the Sooners face the challenge of filling the spot of the 2008 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. The person Gasso chose to occupy the slot is a player familiar with filling her role anywhere on the field. For the third consecutive year, Flores begins the season in a new position. Flores spent most of her time as a freshman in left field and ended her sophomore season as OU's starter at second. In 2009, Flores begins her junior season at shortstop.

Senior Traci Dickenson (Placentia, Calif./El Dorado) will replace Flores at second and the starter at at third will be one of a trio of players in sophomore Dani Dobbs (Moore, Okla./High) and freshmen Karolyne Long (Midwest City, Okla./Carl Albert) and Evan Sallis (Muskogee, Okla./High).

The Outfield

KEY RETURNERS
Krystle Huey	So.	CF	11-13 SBA, 1.000 FLD%
Chana'e Jones	So.	LF	10 RUNS, 13 HITS
Haley Anderson	So.	RF	38 PO, 9 BB, 21 HITS
Wendy Trott	So.	UTL	.276 BA, 8 HR, 40 HITS

KEY LOSSES
Susan Ogden	Sr.	UTL	.287 BA, 12 HR, 45 RBI

One thing that is certain about Oklahoma's 2009 outfield – they will be young. After losing All-American Susan Ogden, who also spent time behind the plate, the Sooners could have two possible outfield combinations when the season starts – a trio of sophomores or a duo of sophomores and freshman catcher-turned-utility player Norris. The 1-2 punch provided by Krystle Huey (Garland, Texas/High) and Chana'e Jones (San Jose, Calif./Valley Christian) projects these two to start in center and left, respectively. They will also be key the Oklahoma batting lineup. The position in right field could be filled by one of four players , either Haley Anderson (Edmond, Okla./Santa Fe), senior Jeannie Douglas (Chandler, Okla./High), sophomore Wendy Trott (Fountain Valley, Calif./High) or Norris.

PATTY GASSO

Head Coach
15th Season at Oklahoma
Long Beach State, 1984
Career Record: 848-283-2
OU Record: 686-224-2

As she begins her 15th season at the University of Oklahoma, head coach Patty Gasso has molded the OU softball program into a national power and permanently placed herself among the elite college softball coaches in the country.

The Sooners have reached the Women's College World Series in five of the last nine years and, in the process, advanced to the postseason in each of her 14 seasons. The WCWS run began in 2000 when her team won the NCAA National Championship in OU's first appearance.

Is she the best coach in the history of Oklahoma softball? Without a doubt.

Is she the greatest coach in Big 12 history? The stats say she is.

Could she be one of the best coaches to ever coach college softball? Each season, she continues to build what is a very strong argument.

Currently in her 19th season as a head coach, Gasso has a career collegiate coaching record of 848-283-2 (.748) and holds an overall record of 686-224-2 (.752) at the University of Oklahoma. She has won more Big 12 games (178-57) than any coach in the league's history and has twice as many wins as any other coach in OU history. Gasso's Sooner teams have finished second or higher 11 different times since the inception of the Big 12 in 1996. They have won 75 percent of their Big 12 contests and OU has claimed three Big 12 regular season and three tournament titles under her direction.

Numerous Sooner players have prospered under Gasso's tutelage and garnered national, regional and conference recognition. She has directed 30 All-Americans, 59 All-Midwest Region honorees and 93 all-conference selections. In the Big 12 era, five Sooners have been named Big 12 Player of the Year, two have been selected as Big 12 Freshman of the Year, one as Big 12 Newcomer and Lauren Eckermann was named OU's first Big 12 Pitcher of the Year in 2007. In addition, 2005 graduate Heather Scaglione was a two-time Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. Most recently, Savannah Long became the first infielder to earn the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year honor in 2008.

The OU softball success under Gasso has also spilled over into the classroom where the Sooners have been honored with 68 academic all-conference honors. Seven of those have gone on to become Academic All-Americans, including Lana Moran, the 2000 Academic All-American of the Year.

Gasso and her staff have consistently been recognized for their efforts on and off the field. The staff was awarded three consecutive Speedline/NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year awards from 1999-2001, received the national honor in 2000. Gasso and staff have claimed the Midwest honor in five of their 14 seasons with the most recent award coming in 2004. In addition, Gasso has been named the Big 12 and Midwest Region Coach of the Year in 1996, 1999 and 2000.

Gasso's career with the Sooners began in 1995 when she arrived at OU after five successful years at Long Beach City College. Her accomplishments during her tenure at LBCC and since led to Gasso being named to the LBCC Hall of Champions in 2004. Later during the 2004 summer, Gasso was inducted into the inaugural class of the Long Beach City Baseball and Softball Hall of Fame. Her success in her hometown of Long Beach set the foundation for a spectacular career in Norman.

In her first season at the helm, the Sooners recorded a 43-23 record, finished second in the conference and reached the regional final. Several Sooners received awards for their play during the 1995 season, including 11 players who garnered all-conference accolades (four on the first team).

Gasso and the Sooners reached new heights in 1996, recording a 50-20 record, a first-ever Big 12 Championship, and another regional final berth. OU dominated the inaugural Big 12 Tournament, putting five players on the all-tournament squad. Pitcher Jill Most was named the tourney MVP.

Gasso's 1996 squad also became the first team outside of the states of California or Arizona to win the prestigious Pony Tournament. Gasso was recognized by her peers for her team's performance, earning the Big 12 Coach-of-the-Year award. Again, Sooner players were mentioned as some of the league's best with 10 players receiving All-Big 12 recognition.

Gasso continued the trend of reaching new heights in 1997 when the team recorded the then-second best record in school history (55-19). The season was highlighted by two impressive 12-game winning streaks that helped the team to a second-place finish in the Big 12. For the fourth consecutive year, OU advanced to a NCAA Regional. It marked the first time in school history that OU hosted the event.

The 1998 season was probably one of Gasso's best coaching jobs. However, it wasn't because of the number of wins and losses or the tournaments won by the Sooners. It was due to the fact the team featured six freshmen. Gasso led the young group to a 49-15 record, a second-place conference finish and a No. 1 seed in a NCAA Regional. Five Sooners were named to the all-conference squad and three players were named to the All-Midwest Region team.

In 1999, Gasso led OU to its sixth straight NCAA regional playoff appearance and her team continued to demonstrate that she is one of the top coaches in the country. Along the path to the regional playoffs in Baton Rouge, La., the Sooners seized several awards and honors. For the second time in the three-year history of the Big 12 Conference, OU was crowned regular season champion. The Sooners, who finished with a 40-16 overall record, won the Big 12 with an 11-3 record.

Oklahoma fell just short of its goal, the Women's College World Series, but the Sooners proved once again that they were a national powerhouse. That year, OU defeated several top-25 teams including Louisiana State, Texas, Massachusetts, Oregon, Texas A&M, Missouri and Nebraska. In addition, the Sooners swept the four-game series with state rival Oklahoma State. The last victory against the Cowgirls in the regular season finale clinched the Big 12 title.

Not only were Gasso's players honored for their accomplishments in 1999, but she was also recognized for her solid coaching effort. Gasso was named the 1999 Big 12 Coach of the Year and joined her staff as the Midwest Regional Coaching Staff of the Year.

The 2000 Sooners won their third Big 12 regular season title since the league began in 1996 and hosted their first NCAA Regional since 1997. Behind an explosive offense and a dominant defense, the Sooners rolled to a 66-8 record and won their final eight games of the season to capture the first softball national championship in school history.

Four Sooners earned All-America honors, with Lisa Carey and Ashli Barrett earning first team recognition. Outfielder Erin Evans and pitcher Stewart were both third team All-Americans and Jennifer Stewart was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS. The accolades rolled in as Gasso was named the Dallas Morning News Big 12 Coach of the Year. She and her staff also earned the Midwest Region Coach of the Year award and Speedline/NFCA Division I National Coaching Staff of the Year.

Following the 2000 National Championship season, Gasso's 2001 squad continued the string of success. The 2001 team went on to match many of the accomplishments of the previous year, including a return trip to the Women's College World Series, a 50-win season and four All-America selections. The team also established its own successes by compiling a school-record 23-game win streak and the program's first Big 12 Tournament title since 1996.

In 2002, Oklahoma went 49-16 and 14-2 in the Big 12. Taking their team motto "Triple Threat" to heart, the Sooners swept their third consecutive NCAA Regional and advanced to a third straight Women's College World Series.

The 2003 squad was led by five seniors and sophomore hurler Kami Keiter. OU reached its fourth consecutive WCWS by becoming the first Sooner squad to claim a regional championship away from Norman. OU ended the season with a 47-14 record and won one game before being eliminated from the 2003 WCWS.

Five Sooners were named to the All-Big 12 Conference first team including senior Leah Gulla, who led the conference in batting average, hits and RBI. Underclassmen Keiter, Scaglione and Kristin Vesely joined senior Evans on the all-conference team. The NFCA bestowed All-America honors on Keiter and Gulla, while Evans joined the duo on the Midwest Region Team.

The OU program reached a couple of milestones during the 2003 season. The program recorded its 1,000th victory when the Sooners knocked off Bethune-Cookman in its regional opener on May 15. Justifying its nickname, the Sooners also became the first Big 12 team to reach the 100-win mark in conference play. OU beat Nebraska, 1-0, in Lincoln on March 20, 2003, to be the first squad to reach the century mark.

The 2004 season went down as one of the most memorable in Sooner history. OU battled through injuries during the entire regular season and peaked at the right time. OU, seeded second in the NCAA Region I Championship, stormed through Tucson, Ariz., knocking off No. 1 Arizona and No. 9 Louisiana-Lafayette en route to the Sooners' fifth consecutive WCWS.

The Sooners entered the WCWS as the hottest hitting team in the postseason and held onto that recognition, despite being eliminated after winning their opener against Washington. Gasso's staff was recognized for a fifth time as the NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year, thanks to one of the most memorable postseason runs in NCAA history.

In 2005, the Sooners made their 11th straight NCAA postseason appearance under Gasso and claimed the Regional 14 Championship in front of the home crowd in Norman. Despite missing out on its sixth straight WCWS appearance after dropping a best-of-three series to Arizona in the NCAA Super Regional, the Sooners were one of the best hitting teams in program history (fourth in the nation with a .320 batting average). The highlight of the season was OU's record 29-game winning streak that spanned 36 days and was extended during play in five different states. The Sooners outscored opponents 218-40, run ruled 10 opponents and claimed five tourney championships during the streak.

In 2006, Gasso led the Sooners to their 13th straight 40-win season. The young Sooner squad made a strong postseason run, winning 12 of its final 15 contests to finish second in the Big 12 Championship and advance to the NCAA Regional Finals for the seventh consecutive year.

In 2008, the Sooners advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals and finished second in the Big 12 with an overall record of 47-14 and 16-2 in league play. In addition to Long being named the Big 12's Defensive Player of the Year, she and four teammates were named first team All-Big 12. Four Sooners earned All-Midwest Region first team honors with another on the second team.

Gasso and her husband, Jim, reside in Norman with their youngest son, D.J. The couple's oldest son, J.T., plays baseball at Eastern Oklahoma State University for former Oklahoma baseball player Aric Thomas.

MELYSSA LOMBARDI

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

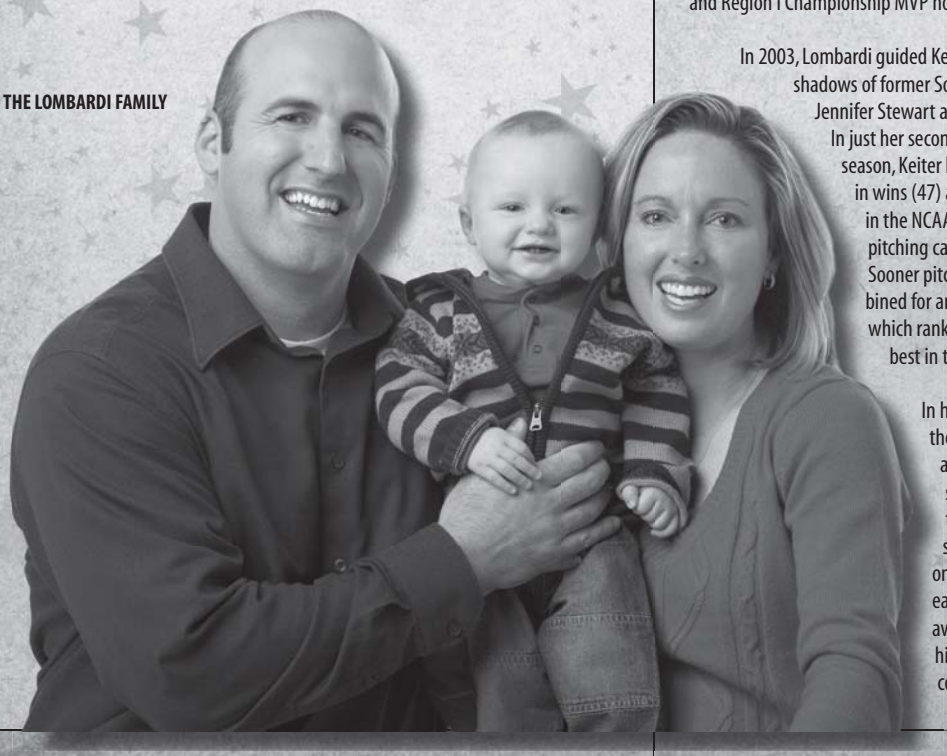
12th Season at Oklahoma
Oklahoma, 1997

Now in her 12th season as a full-time coach, Melyssa Lombardi continues to guide the Sooner pitchers and catchers to even greater accomplishments. Lombardi was promoted to her current position of associate head coach in July 2007.

Drawing from her playing days as a catcher for the Sooners from 1995-96, Lombardi has lent her valuable experiences in tutoring the Oklahoma catchers and pitchers. During her tenure, the Sooners won the 2000 National Championship and have won eight NCAA Regional Championships in 11 postseason appearances. In addition the Sooners have claimed two Big 12 regular season titles (1999, 2000) and two conference tournament championships (2001, 2007).

A former all-conference catcher for the Sooners, Lombardi has also coached the Oklahoma battery to a combined 10 All-America honors, 16 All-Region accolades and 23 All-Big 12 selections during her time in Norman.

Lombardi guided catcher Heather Scaglione to two straight All-America first team honors in 2004 and 2005. The only two-time first team All-American in school history was also named the Big 12's Defensive Player of the Year in those same years. Scaglione remains the only player in Big 12 history to receive the honor twice.



THE LOMBARDI FAMILY

The 2007 season was one of the most successful for the OU battery. The team posted a 55-8 overall record and Lauren Eckermann earned Big 12 Pitcher of the Year honors. Eckermann went on to be named an All-American and tied the school record for most wins in a season with 37. In 2008, pitcher D.J. Mathis and catcher Lindsey Vandever earned All-Midwest Region and All-Big 12 honors. Mathis also earned second team All-America honors and ranked among the nation's best in several NCAA categories.

In 2004, Lombardi may have had her biggest challenge since joining the OU staff. The pitching coach had to hold together a staff that was missing its No. 1 and No. 2 pitcher for a combined total of 51 games. Despite the shortage of arms, the Sooners were the third best staff (in terms of ERA) in the Big 12. Lombardi's protégé Kami Keiter turned it up another notch during the postseason when she garnered All-Big 12 Tournament and Region I Championship MVP honors.

In 2003, Lombardi guided Keiter out of the shadows of former Sooner great Jennifer Stewart and into stardom. In just her second collegiate season, Keiter led the Big 12 in wins (47) and was ranked in the NCAA top 15 in two pitching categories. The Sooner pitching staff combined for an ERA of 1.40, which ranked as the 18th best in the NCAA.

In her first year on the coaching staff as a student assistant in 1997, the OU pitching staff produced one of the lowest earned run averages in school history and in the country.

The staff finished with a 1.14 ERA to rank seventh in the nation. The Sooners' pitching performances continued to rank among the nation's elite in 1998 and 1999 and the Sooners' improvement culminated in 2000 with a national championship.

In the national championship season, the team registered a 1.44 ERA which was good enough for second in the Big 12 and ranked 25th nationally. The staff posted 24 shutouts and its best strikeout total in three years with 301.

Lombardi helped guide the one-two punch of Lana Moran and Stewart that year. Moran went 26-2 and led the Big 12 with a 1.28 ERA. Stewart was a third team All-America selection and the MOP of the Women's College World Series. Lombardi also helped catcher Ashli Barrett reach new heights as the junior was named a first team All-American.

The Glendale, Ariz., native ended her two-year Sooner playing career with a spectacular senior season in 1996. Her team-leading .345 batting average was a key factor during OU's Big 12 Conference Championship run that year.

She was also instrumental in helping Jill Most and Jennifer Jaime record two of the best pitching seasons in school history. Lombardi caught all three of Most's wins in OU's conference tournament games and was named to the all-tournament team after going 3-for-8 (.375) at the plate with four RBI, two runs scored, a triple and a stolen base.

Lombardi graduated from OU in 1997 with a degree in health and sports science. She and her husband, John, were married on Nov. 10, 2000. The couple welcomed their first child, a son, Gianni Thomas, on Feb. 19, 2008.

KAYCEE CLARK

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
Third Season at Oklahoma
Central Florida, 2004

Kaycee Clark enters her third season as a full-time staff member of the Oklahoma softball staff.

Clark is no stranger to the Sooner program as she was a member of the 2001 and 2002 Women's College World Series teams. Clark is responsible for the day-to-day operations off the field while serving as a liaison for athletic department staff and the Diamond Club.

"Kaycee brings a tremendous amount of enthusiasm and passion to our program," head coach Patty Gasso said. "She was that way as a player and I enjoy working with her on an everyday basis again. She's is an excellent representative for our team and our university," Gasso said. "She's a winner and knows the expectations of this program."

Following her sophomore season at OU, Clark transferred to the University of Central Florida where she earned Atlantic Sun All-Tournament honors as a junior. As a second baseman at UCF, Clark recorded a .940 fielding percentage for the Golden Knights.

Clark also excelled in the classroom. She received Academic All-Big 12 honors in 2002 at Oklahoma and was a member of the Atlantic Sun All-Academic team as a junior at Central Florida. In 1999, Clark was a member of the U.S. Junior National team that spent several weeks playing in Australia.

After her playing career, Clark worked as a land assistant for Chesapeake Energy. She also served as coach of the Oklahoma Ice, a 14 and under travel squad, as well as giving various private hitting and fielding lessons.

Born in Midwest City, Okla., Clark earned a bachelor's degree in liberal arts while at Central Florida.

THIS IS OKLAHOMA

The University of Oklahoma is home to one of the most storied athletics programs in the nation. The Sooners boast 26 national championships in men's and women's sports, more than 230 team conference titles and more than 700 All-Americans.

The success of Oklahoma's teams contribute to a sense of pride in the community and across the state. The very mention of the word "Sooners" evokes a sense of history, tradition and championships. Nationwide, OU is synonymous with winning.

FROM THE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

The pride in our program goes beyond the trophies and victories to the very things for which we stand. Throughout the department, OU's student-athletes, coaches and staff members are committed to our core values, a set of beliefs we use in making every decision.

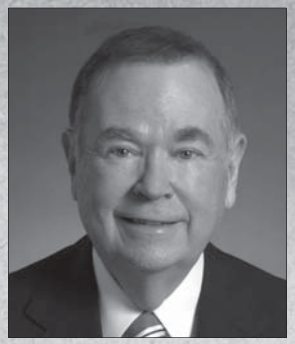
Those values include respect, accountability for self and others, passion for comprehensive excellence, celebration of diversity and integrity in all our affairs.

Our commitment to these values allows us to view everything we do within the greater framework of our mission statement -- inspiring champions today and preparing leaders for tomorrow.

Like a mosaic, our combined commitment to the core values creates the picture of who we are as people and as Sooners. It helps us understand that we are a small part of the legacy of excellence that is Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of Oklahoma.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT BOREN WITH HEAD FOOTBALL COACH BOB STOOPS



DR. DAVID L. BOREN

13th President
The University of Oklahoma

David L. Boren, who has served Oklahoma as governor and U.S. senator, became the thirteenth president of the University of Oklahoma in November 1994. He is the first person in state history to have served in all three positions.

Boren is widely respected for his academic credentials, his longtime support of education, and for his distinguished political career as a reformer of the American political system. A graduate of Yale University in 1963, Boren majored in American history, graduated in the top one percent of his class and was elected Phi Beta Kappa. He was selected as a Rhodes Scholar and earned a master's degree in politics, philosophy and economics from Oxford University, England, in 1965.

In 1968, he received a law degree from the University of Oklahoma College of Law, where he was on the Law Review, elected to the Order of the Coif, and won the Bledsoe Prize as the outstanding graduate by a vote of the faculty.

As Oklahoma's governor from 1974 through 1978, Boren promoted key educational initiatives that have had an enduring impact on Oklahoma. Established during his tenure were the Oklahoma Arts Institute, the Scholar-Leadership Enrichment Program, and the Oklahoma Physicians Manpower Training Program, which provides scholarships for medical students and medical personnel who commit to practice in underserved rural areas. Also, the first state funding for Gifted and Talented classes was provided in 1976 and, from 1976 through 1978, Oklahoma ranked first among all states in the percentage increases of funding for higher education.

One of Boren's most far-reaching projects in promoting quality education at all levels is the Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence, which he founded in 1985. The foundation recognizes outstanding public school students and teachers and helps establish private local foundations to help give academic endowment grants to local public schools. As a senator, he was the author of the National Security Education Act in 1992, which provides scholarships for study abroad and for learning additional languages, as well as legislation to restore the tax deductibility of gifts of appreciated property to universities in 1993.

Boren, also a former state legislator, spent nearly three decades in elective politics before becoming the president of the University of Oklahoma. Boren was the youngest governor in the nation when he served from 1974 to 1978. Known as a reformer, Boren campaigned with a broom as his symbol. During his term, he instituted many progressive programs, including conflict-of-interest rules, campaign-financing disclosure, stronger open meeting laws for public bodies, more competitive bidding on state government contracts, and reform of the state's prison system, including expanded education programs for first-time offenders and the largest expansion of the work-release program in state history.

During his time in the U.S. Senate from 1979 to 1994, Boren served on the Senate Finance and Agriculture Committees and was the longest-serving chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. From his days as a state legislator and governor of Oklahoma to Washington, Boren carried a commitment to reform, leading numerous efforts to make government work better for American citizens. As chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee, he strengthened oversight of secret government programs and reformed the procedures for Presidential notice of such programs to Congress.

For more than 10 years, he led the fight for congressional campaign finance reform and for legislation discouraging administration and congressional staff from cashing in on government experience and contacts by becoming lobbyists. In addition, he introduced legislation seeking to limit gifts and travel subsidies that government workers, including members of Congress, can receive from lobbyists. Boren also chaired the special 1992-93 Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress, which produced proposals to make Congress more efficient and responsive by streamlining congressional bureaucracy, reducing staff sizes and reforming procedures to end legislative gridlock.

Boren left the U.S. Senate in 1994 with an approval rating of 91 percent after being reelected with 83 percent of the vote in 1990, the highest percentage in the nation in a U.S. Senate contest in that election year.

Boren served from 1988 to 1997 as a member of the Yale University Board of Trustees. His university experience also includes four years on the faculty of Oklahoma Baptist University, where he was chairman of the Department of Political Science and chairman of the Division of Social Sciences. In 1993, the American Association of University Professors presented Boren with the Henry Yost Award as Education Advocate of the Year.

In April 2004, Boren received the Mory's Cup from the Mory's Association at Yale University. In making the presentation to Boren it was noted that he was the first Yale graduate in the university's history extending over three centuries to have served as a Governor, U.S. Senator and President of a major university.

Under Boren's leadership, the University of Oklahoma has developed and emerged as a "pacesetter university in American public higher education," with 20 major new programs initiated since his inauguration. They include establishment of the Honors College, the Charles M. Russell Center for the Study of Art of the American West, a new expository writing program for freshmen modeled on the program at Harvard, an interdisciplinary religious studies program, the Artist-in-Residence Program, the International Programs Center, and the Faculty-in-Residence Program putting faculty family apartments in student residence halls. The Retired Professors Program has been started, bringing 50 retired full professors back to the University to teach freshmen.

The number of new facilities started or completed on the campus during the Boren years has matched the explosion in new programs. Since 1994, almost $1 billion in construction projects have been completed or are under way on OU's three campuses. Among the largest of the recent projects are the $18.7 million renovation and expansion of historic Holmberg Hall, home of music and dance programs; the $67 million National Weather Center; the $19 million addition to the Michael F. Price College of Business; the $17 million Gaylord Hall for journalism and mass communication; the $27 million Stephenson Research and Technology Center; and the $83.5 million stadium project. The Health Sciences Center has a new Student Union, and the new $24 million Stanton L. Young Biomedical Research Center.

Presidential Travel Scholarships, students from 111 countries on campus, more reciprocal international exchange agreements than any other university and the new International Programs Center are all making OU more international. The new Honors College helps to assure that no students need to leave Oklahoma to find an educational experience to match their potential.

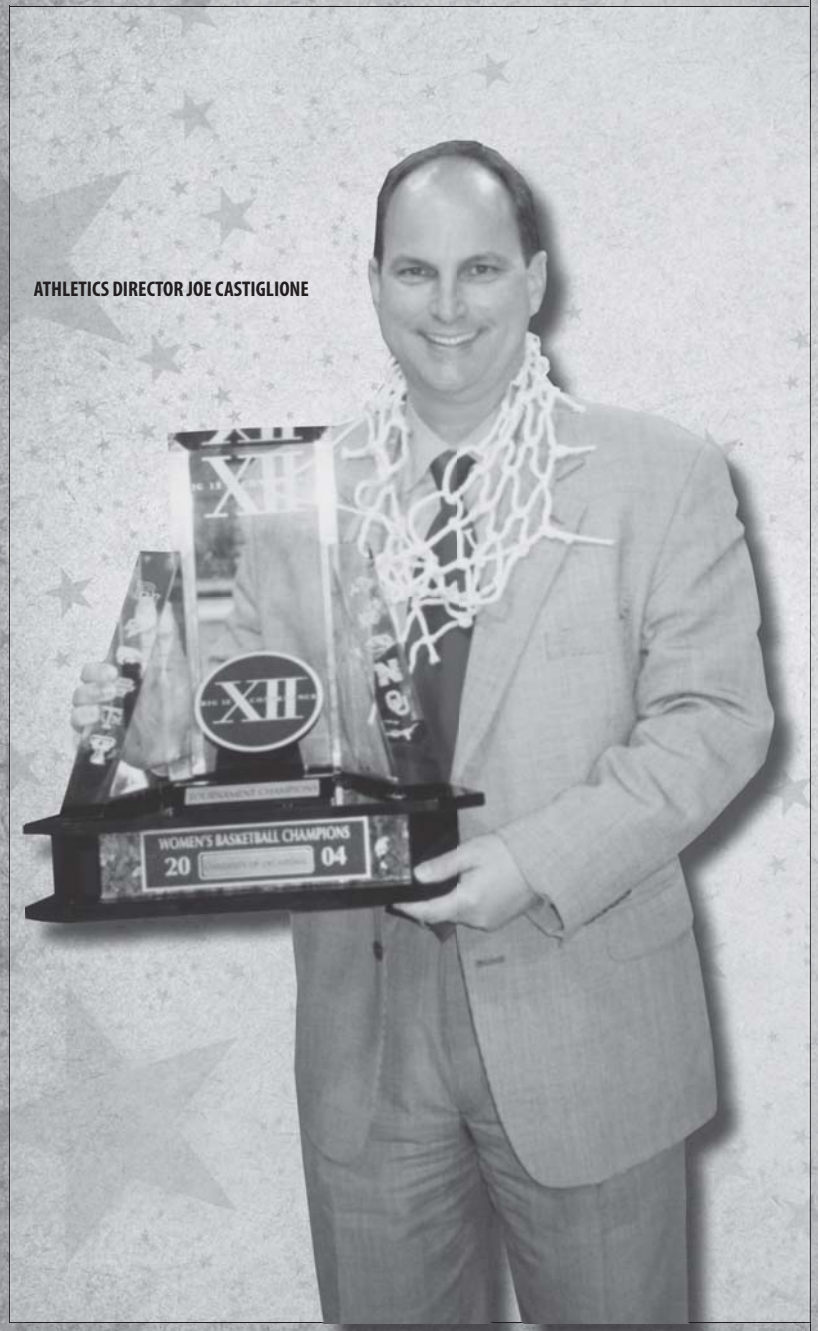
In 1995, Boren launched the "Reach for Excellence" fundraising campaign with a five-year goal of $200 million, which was twice as large as any fundraising drive in Oklahoma history. The drive exceeded $500 million, raising OU into the top 15 public universities in the United States in private endowment per capita. Since 1994, endowed professorships have more than quadrupled and the OU donor base has grown from 18,000 to more than 107,000 friends and alumni. During the first 10 years of Boren's tenure over $1 billion in private gifts were donated to the university.

Above all, the Boren years have been marked by an emphasis on putting students first. There is not a university president in the country that is more committed to students as his number one priority. He teaches a freshman-level course in political science each semester and is one of the few presidents of major universities to teach.

Boren is married to Molly Shi Boren, a former judge and English teacher. Mrs. Boren is President Emeritus of the Oklahoma Arts Institute, which provides education programs in nine arts disciplines for high school students from across the state who are gifted in the arts. Molly Boren has two degrees from the University of Oklahoma, a master's degree in English and a Juris Doctorate from the OU College of Law. A native of Seminole, Boren has two children, Carrie Christine Boren, an Episcopal minister, and David Daniel Boren, a member of the United States Congress from Oklahoma. Devoting much of his life to public service, Boren drew from the example of his parents, the late Congressman Lyle H. Boren and Christine Boren.

THE BORENS

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS



ATHLETICS DIRECTOR JOE CASTIGLIONE

JOE CASTIGLIONE

Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics/ Athletics Director

Principle Centered Leader . . . Visionary ... Passionate Advocate for Student-Athletes ... Establishes Standards of Excellence & Cultural Values ... Builder of Championship Programs

Each of those characteristics, standing alone, describes the 11th director of athletics in University of Oklahoma history. However, just as he has brought together different groups who are committed to one goal, you must combine those traits to get the complete picture of the person who has led the OU athletics department since 1998.

Joe Castiglione has established a pattern of excellence that few in his profession can match. In an environment where every decision is made reflecting the department's mission statement "Inspiring champions today . . . Preparing leaders for tomorrow," forming the background, Castiglione is leading the department that has written one of the most successful eras in school history.

A firm believer that it takes a great team effort to experience success in the classroom and in competition, Castiglione is quick to give full credit to the student-athletes and coaches, the staff, OU President David L. Boren, the OU Board of Regents, the donors and the fans for the success experienced during his tenure. When the search committee recommended Castiglione to university administration in 1998, they believed they had found a rising star in the field of intercollegiate athletics. Everything that has happened in the department since his arrival has confirmed that belief as OU's Athletics Department has shared in the renaissance that has occurred throughout the university under President Boren's leadership.

The accomplishments of the department, its student-athletes, coaches and staff have earned national recognition for the university and the department. Recognized as the 2007 PRISM Award winner by the School of Sports Management at the University of Massachusetts, OU was just the second Division I winner and all of the programs recognized by the selection panel were started under Castiglione's leadership with the full support of university administration. The PRISM Award annually recognizes one Division I intercollegiate athletics department that demonstrates industry-leading excellence and innovation in sports management.

His commitment to the success of student-athletes led NCAA President Dr. Myles Brand to appoint him as chair of the Football Academic Progress Rate (APR) Working Group in June of 2008. This group, which includes presidents, chancellors, conference commissioners, faculty athletics representatives, athletics directors and head football coaches, has been given the charge to review the APR as it pertains to Division I football student-athletes. When the study is complete, the group will report back to Dr. Brand and the NCAA Board of Directors with their findings, evaluations and recommendations for improvement.

His peers have honored him for the department's achievements as well. In October 2004, the Bobby Dodd Foundation named him Athletics Director of the Year. In 2003, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame. In June 2001, he received the General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award for lifetime achievement from the All-American Football Foundation. The National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) named him Central Region AD of the Year in 2000.

Perhaps his most unique achievement since his arrival, though, came when he received his master's of education degree from OU in May 2007. To understand the need for education and lifelong learning, OU's student-athletes just have to look at their AD who started and completed his master's degree while running the department and maintaining his priorities to his family. He quickly put his experience to use as an adjunct professor in the College of Education, teaching a graduate class in Marketing & Development.

The 11th director of athletics at the University of Oklahoma has celebrated seven national team championships and more than 40 conference team titles; record numbers of graduating student-athletes and record-setting grade point averages for Sooner teams; dramatically increased donor giving; huge increases in ticket sales for all sports; major facility improvements, and development and construction of new facilities. And, as aggressive as the push to improve, expand and excel has been, he has produced a balanced budget in every year of his tenure, a first since the early 1980s.

Other highlights during Castiglione's tenure include:

- An annual finish among the top 25 in the standings for the Director's Cup which measures overall athletics success in eight of the last nine years, including an all-time program best of 15th in 2003-2004. OU ranked 23rd in the 2007-08 standings.
- The Sooner men's gymnastics team won its eighth NCAA title in 2008. It marked the fifth national championship for the program in the last seven years. The Sooners were led by OU's most decorated gymnast in school history and latest Olympian, Jonathan

Horton, who led the U.S. team to bronze in Beijing.

- A total of 29 OU teams that have ranked among the top 10 in season-ending polls.
- A school-record and Big 12-best graduation rate of 74% in 2003.
- Four appearances in the BCS National Championship Game and the college football national championship in 2000.
- Appearances by the men's and women's basketball teams in their respective Final Fours in 2002.
- A Division I record of 74 combined victories produced by the football team and both basketball squads in the 2001-02 school year.
- An average of more than 17 out of 20 OU teams per year represented in postseason play. A total of 18 of OU's 20 teams advanced to NCAA competition in 2007-08 and conference titles were produced by football, men's gymnastics and women's gymnastics.

Castiglione was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign, Great Expectations: The Campaign For Sooner Sports, cultivating more than 20 multi-million dollar gifts, including the largest capital gifts in the history for the department of athletics. The campaign ended in November of 2003 with more than $125 million raised. The figure has grown to almost $200 million since then as funds continue to be raised for facility improvements and scholarship endowments. The largest fund-raising effort in OU athletics history includes projects that impact each of OU's nearly 500 student-athletes and has become a national model for intercollegiate athletics.

The campaign was unique because it literally raised funds for facility projects, either construction or renovation of existing facilities, that impacted each of OU's 21 athletics teams. Athletics department projects that have been part of a building boom on the OU campuses include a $70 million renovation and expansion of Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium; $17.2 million renovation of Lloyd Noble Center; phase I of The Headington Family Tennis Complex; John Jacobs Track and Field Complex; the Everest Training Facility, one of the largest indoor practice areas in the country; and construction of the Gregg & Betsy Wadley Indoor Tennis Center; the redesign of the Sooner football practice fields; the Port Robertson Wrestling Facility; phase I & II of the Sooner Soccer Complex, expansion of the Viersen Gymnastics Pavilion as well as additional renovations to the McCasland Field House; L. Dale Mitchell Park, the Charlie Coe Golf Learning Center, the OU Softball Complex and Barry Switzer Center.

His administrative work, which has seen significant reorganization and the hiring of 12 head coaches, also included the negotiation of multi-million dollar multi-media rights contract that produces more than $8 million in annual revenue for the athletics department. Working with OU administration to expand opportunities for women, he was involved in the addition of the Sooners' 21st athletics team, women's rowing (which began competition in the fall of 2008), and the design and construction of the new McClendon Boathouse on the Oklahoma River.

Castiglione was hired on April 30, 1998, after serving as athletics director at Missouri. In his 17-year career with the Tigers, Castiglione, who was named director of athletics at Missouri on Dec. 15, 1993, was credited with rebuilding sports programs, hiring outstanding coaches, implementing an innovative master plan for facilities, inspiring record-setting increases in fund-raising and balancing the budget in each of his five years as athletics director.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the University's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007. He began his career as the sports promotions director at Rice. He then worked a year as director of athletic fund-raising at Georgetown before being hired in 1981 at Missouri as director of communications and marketing.

His commitment to the success of student-athletes led NCAA President Dr. Myles Brand to appoint him as chair of the Football Academic Progress Rate (APR) Working Group in June of 2008. Active on the national and conference level, he is currently serving on the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board and the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Board of Directors. He served two terms as chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors and is a past president of both the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He served a four-year term on the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and the NCAA Baseball Committee and is a past member of the NCAA Football Special Events Certification Committee. He recently served on the NCAA Diversity Leadership Strategic Planning Committee and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group. A member of the Phi Delta Theta Foundation Board of Trustees, he is a highly requested speaker at annual conventions and continuing education institutes.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione is married to the former Kristen Bartel, a 1990 graduate of the University of Missouri. They are the parents of two sons, Joseph Robert, Jr. and Jonathan Edmund.

season review

THE UNEXPECTED

Oklahoma's 2008 season ended just one win shy of the program's sixth trip to the Women's College World Series

BIG 12 DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR SAVANNAH LONG

The Sooners finished their season with an overall mark of 47-14 and finished second in the Big 12 with a 16-2 conference record, its second best league record in school history. Oklahoma also won the first Super Regional game in school history after going 0-5 in its first five Super Regional contests dating back to 2005. The Sooners finished the year ranked 10th in the polls.

"I'm so proud of this team for pushing until the very end," head coach Patty Gasso said of her 2008 squad. "Obviously, you want to win all the championships you can, but this team surprised a lot of people this year. Most of all, they fought until the very end and that is all you can ask for."

Non-Conference Play

Another challenging non-conference schedule faced the Sooners in 2008. OU's first game was against 10th-ranked UCLA. During non-conference play, OU went 31-12 and recorded key wins against San Diego State, Georgia and UCLA.

Conference Play

The Sooners finished second in the league standings in 2008 with their only two losses coming to conference champion Texas A&M. During league play, OU defeated Nebraska, Iowa State and Baylor in series on the road. The Sooners also retained the Bedlam Bell after sweeping the series with archrival Oklahoma State.

Postseason Play

Oklahoma won its ninth NCAA Regional, defeating Oregon (6-0, 11-0) and Arkansas (6-5) in Norman. The Sooners then advanced to the Tucson Super Regional. Arizona took the opening contest 3-1 but Oklahoma rallied back to win 2-0 to force a deciding third game. In that contest, OU came up short of another trip to the Women's College World Series as the Wildcats prevailed 5-2.

Awards and Honors

OU placed seven players on All-Big 12 teams as Amber Flores, Savannah Long, D.J. Mathis, Samantha Ricketts and Lindsey Vandever highlighted the coaches' All-Big 12 first team. Seniors Susan Ogden and Lauren Eckermann collected second team honors.

Ricketts picked up her third straight first team honor, while Flores recorded her second straight. Eckermann, Ogden and Long received the second All-Big 12 honor of their careers, while Mathis and Vandever made their first appearances on the All-Big 12 teams.

The Sooners tied with Texas A&M, the Big 12 regular season champions, with the most first team selections. Oklahoma has placed at least five members on the All-Big 12 team every year since the inception of the league in 1996.

Five Sooners were named to the All-Midwest Region team, including a regional-best four on the first team. Mathis, Vandever, Long and Flores were named to the first team, while Ricketts earned second team honors. It marked the second consecutive year the Sooners placed at least five players on the all-region squad.

Oklahoma had three players named to the 2008 Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-America teams. Flores, Mathis and Long represented the Sooners on the second team All-America squads. It marked the first All-America honor for all three Sooners.

Flores, a sophomore, was a first team All-Big 12 and All-Midwest Region selection and led the squad with a .381 batting average with 15 home runs and 46 RBI. Flores, an at-large selection, set an OU single season record with 45 walks on the year. She was also one of 25 quarterfinalists for USA Softball's National Player of the Year.

Mathis was solid in the circle for the Sooners as she posted a 31-7 overall record and finished with a 1.18 earned run average. Mathis collected first team All-Big 12 and All-Midwest Region honors and earned the conference ERA title in overall games and league games during the regular season. Mathis joined Flores as one of 25 finalists for USA Softball's National Player of the Year.

Senior captain Long closed out her career with a solid season, hitting .359 with 13 home runs and 39 RBI. The shortstop also became the first non-catcher to earn Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year since its inception in 2004. The shortstop was solid on the defensive end where she recorded a .974 fielding percentage and only five errors on the year.

Four Sooners were named to the Academic All-Big 12 team. Leading the pack were first-team honorees Eckermann, Long and Ricketts. Listed on the second team was Mathis. Long made her second career appearance on the Academic All-Big 12 team while Eckermann, Ricketts and Mathis each received their first career honor.

Eckermann was named to the ESPN the Magazine/Academic All-District VI Softball first team by the College Sports Information Directors of America. Eckermann was also recognized for her community involvement as she was chosen as one of 10 softball finalists for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award.

Ricketts was named to the Big 12's All-Tournament team after going 3-for-3 with two home runs and a double. She also added four RBI in OU's 6-5 loss to Nebraska. The three-time All-Big 12 selection tied her single-game best in the contest with 10 total bases. She also tied the OU single season record with two home runs in a game.

OKLAHOMA'S SEASON ENDS IN ARIZONA

OU battled until the end, but its season ended in Tucson as the Sooners fell to Arizona, 5-2, in the third and deciding game in the Super Regional. Oklahoma battled to force the third game in the best-of-three series by shutting out the Wildcats, 2-0, in the first game of the doubleheader on Saturday to even the series at 1-1. Arizona won the opening contest 3-1 to take a 1-0 series lead.

FLORES BREAKS SINGLE SEASON WALKS MARK

OU's leadoff batter Amber Flores was solid, leading the team in batting average and walks. Flores set a single season record for walks with 45 on the year. The previous season high was 41 set by Casey Dickson (1997) and Heather Scaglione (2004). Below is a look at where each player sits on the single season list.

		Number	Year
1	Amber Flores	43	2008
2	Casey Dickson	41	1997
	Heather Scaglione	41	2004
4.	Christy Ring	38	2001
5	Samantha Ricketts	36	2008

EXTRA INNINGS

The Sooners played five extra-inning contests in 2008 and were perfect in those contests with a 5-0 record. Oklahoma topped Arkansas, 6-5, in 11 innings in the Norman Regional. The Sooners' only other extra-inning win at home was a 3-2 10-inning win over Texas Tech in the first game of a doubleheader. OU topped Cal Poly in eight innings on a neutral field (Sacramento, Calif.) while taking two extra-innings wins on the road. The Sooners went eight innings at Arkansas, but came out with the 3-2 win. Oklahoma beat Baylor in its longest game of the year as the Sooners won, 9-4, in 12 innings.

ECKERMANN THROWS PERFECT GAME

Senior pitcher Lauren Eckermann, 2007's Co-Big 12 Pitcher of the Year, got back in the groove against St. Gregory's on Feb. 12. Eckermann threw the first perfect game of her career. Eckermann picked up her first win of the season in dramatic fashion as she became only the sixth OU player since the start of Big 12 play to throw a perfect game and the first pitcher to do it since Jennifer Stewart tossed a perfect game against Texas-Arlington on Feb. 8, 2002. The perfect game also marked the fourth no-hitter of Eckermann's career at OU as she tossed three during the 2007 season.

14TH STRAIGHT 40-WIN SEASON

Head coach Patty Gasso notched her 14th straight 40-win season with a sweep of Texas. It marked the 15th straight 40-win season for the program and the 18th time in school history. The Sooners are the only team in Big 12 Conference history to notch 40-win seasons in all 13 years of the league's existence. Below is a look at the number of 40-win seasons by each Big 12 teams since the conference began.

Team	40-Win seasons since 1996
Oklahoma	13
Nebraska	7
Texas	6
Texas A&M	5
Baylor	4
Missouri	4
Oklahoma State	2
Texas Tech	1

OU BREAKS HOME RUN RECORD

The Sooners set a school record against Pacific on Feb. 22 as Oklahoma pounded six home runs. The previous OU record for home runs in a game was five and it had been done twice. The 1996 squad pounded five against Tulsa (April 11) while the 2005 team hammered five against Texas A&M.

OPPONENTS NOT STEALING ON VANDEVER

Sophomore catcher Lindsey Vandever made a name for herself as one of the top catchers in the league and around the country. Her reputation showed in conference play as Big 12 teams attempted a conference-low 15 stolen base against the Sooners and were successful only nine times. Three of those successful attempts came against replacement Susan Ogden as Vandever missed the Missouri series. In overall games, opponents stole 21-of-34 bases on Vandever.

HOME IS WHERE THE "W" IS

The Sooners closed out their home season with a 23-1 home record at the OU Softball Complex. Its only blemish of the season was a 3-2 loss against Missouri State.

MATHIS, FLORES QUARTER FINALISTS FOR POY

OU junior pitcher D.J. Mathis and sophomore infielder Amber Flores were named two of the 25 candidates for USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year, announced the Amateur Softball Association, the national governing body of softball in the United States, on April 9. However, neither was selected as one of the 10 semifinalists for the award.

It marks the sixth straight season that the Sooners have had at least one candidate on the list of 25 and the second consecutive year that OU has had two players on the list. Last season, Samantha Ricketts was one of three finalists for the award. Oklahoma is the only Big 12 team with more than one candidate on the list. Texas A&M's Megan Gibson is the only other Big 12 player on the list. Neither Mathis or Flores were on the Preseason Watch List comprised of 40 players.

TEAM USA EDGES OKLAHOMA, 2-0

Playing the nation's top softball players on March 25, the Oklahoma softball team kept it close as the USA National Team edged the Sooners, 2-0, in front of 3,591 fans at ASA Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City. The exhibition game did not count toward OU's overall stats this season, but Oklahoma kept the game entertaining. OU starter D.J. Mathis gave up two earned runs on four hits while walking one and striking out one in 5.1 innings of work.
